

RING SIZE GUIDE/INSTRUCTIONS

Step 1

Click on print. Make sure there is no page alignment function active, for example 'align page' or 'fit to page' or 'print as image'.

Step 2

Place one of your rings on the sizing guide and evaluate which size of circle fits closest to the edge of the inside of your ring. The indicated figure is your ring size.

Comments

The sizes on the ring size guide may suffer distortions according to the configuration of your printer. The purpose of this guide is to help identify your approximate ring size. If you are unsure the safest option is to go into any high street jeweller and have your finger measured.

Important

To guarantee this ring size guide was printed accurately use a ruler to check the scale below is 1 inch. If it is not accurate please re-align your printer or pop into a jeweller to obtain an exact measurement.
